Classical Character Day

Wednesday, October 26th

Students and faculty will celebrate the virtues and qualities of a character he or she appreciates by dressing up as that character on Wednesday, October 26th. We expect our scholars to choose characters of positive moral character and remember that we have young scholars who also need to feel comfortable with what they see. Please follow the guidelines below when putting together a costume for your child. It is not required that your child dress up, but it is, of course, highly encouraged. If you have any questions, please contact Mrs. Brady at lbrady@archwaychandler.org. Any student who chooses to dress up will be asked to complete the Classical Character Day form and return it to their teacher by Friday, October 21st.

Please defer to your child's classroom teacher if you have questions about events or reading activities that may occur throughout this special day.

1. The costume must be of a literary figure from a classic novel. Feel free to reference the Archway Chandler literature curriculum or our school library for ideas.
2. The costume must cover at least the same areas as the Archway polo and shorts/skirts (just above the knee). No skinny jeans or leggings alone should be worn.
3. Items in your costume should not have any logos or pop-culture references on them. Costumes from movie versions will not be allowed.
4. Shoes must remain in uniform. (solid black or solid white)
5. Face paint is only permitted if it is an integral part of the costume and should be minimal (i.e. whiskers are acceptable, but a green face is not). You may opt to use the mask in a creative way, but full face masks are not permitted. It should only cover the nose and mouth.
6. No fake blood or gory costumes will be allowed on campus.
7. Small props are allowed, but they should be put away during class and recess. Play swords and other weapon-like props should be kept at home.
8. Students who do not follow the guidelines for the dress-up day may be sent home.
